Local youth honored

June 06, 2008 - 6:55 pm
By: Bob Coles

A North Bay teenager has received a national award. Jerri clout was honored this week in Toronto by the Youth in Motion organization. They have a top 20 under 20 program and Jerri received her award on Wednesday at a ceremony in Toronto. Jerri was honored for her efforts in raising hiv/aids awareness. Reached at Friday's Partici-Patrick event clout says she had a chance to meet the Governor General as her office has a project with Youth in Motion that each top 20 winner gets a mentor from the Order of Canada to work with over a 12 month period. Nipissing MPP Monique Smith says Jerri is a role model for young people
